Product Description:

Baodu's glass wool Sandwich Panel includes 3 layers: the external and internal is galvanized steel plate or aluminum plate, there are two kinds of core materials: one is pure glass wool panel without Pur or Pir edge, while the other is glass wool panel with Pur or Pir edge. Glass wool or mineral wool panels are sandwich panels whose sheets are associated solidly with glass wool protection. These panels are subsequently exceptionally versatile composite panels that have both burden-bearing and protecting capacities. The panel's protection is made of around 95 – 99 % liquid shake and dismantled into strings to acquire a sinewy structure. The strands are uniformly distributed to guarantee that the shear quality is kept steady.

Features:

Adequate Insulation

Adequate insulation offers thermal & acoustic insulation properties.

Best alternative

cost-efficient alternative to conventional building masonry construction where there is a higher risk of fire.

Customizable

100% customized sizes available as per the customer requirement or building requirements.

Energy savings

Low thermal conductivity helps in higher energy savings and maintains a desired temperature.

Fire Resistance

The core material of Glasswool panels is inflammable and insulating. Thus it prevents flames from spreading and is a viable choice for fire-resistant constructions.

Zero Maintenance

Glasswool insulated sandwich panels does not requires painting, any kind of maintenance.
