Product Description

Fireproof Thermal Insulation Thermal Insulation Soundproof Exterior Eps Sandwich Panel

Product Description:

The EPS sandwich panel is made of two layers of prepainted steel sheets and an EPS foam core. The EPS foam core provides excellent thermal insulation, making it perfect for buildings in areas with harsh climates. The panel's thermal insulation properties help to keep the interior of the building warm in winter and cool in summer, allowing for energy savings.

The EPS foam sandwich panel is easy to install, reducing labor costs and the time required for construction. The panels are lightweight, making them easy to transport and handle, and they can be cut to size on-site, reducing waste. The panels can be installed vertically or horizontally, depending on the design requirements.
